

WITH UNDERSTANDING
COMES CALM, LLC

Contract for Parent Group Workshop

Julie Skolnick, M.A., J.D. of With Understanding Comes Calm, LLC will provide a workshop for [School/Association] on [Date] at [Location] addressing the topics of teaching Twice Exceptional students.

Workshop Goals:

- Educate parents about the unique profile of twice exceptionality. What are the typical behavioral challenges, how do those challenges play out in the classroom and what are best practices to address those challenges?
- Give parents the opportunity to ask questions and share their experiences of what goes right and what goes wrong for their 2e child(ren) at home and at school.
- Share best practices from the field, teach strategies and share real life anecdotes to illustrate what works and what doesn't for 2e students.
- Fee: $500 plus any travel expenses.
- Payment due 30 days in advance. If cancellation occurs within one week of the scheduled workshop, [School/Association] will incur a 50% charge or $250.

You are engaging Julie Skolnick, M.A., J.D. because of her expertise in giftedness and twice exceptionality through her service, With Understanding Comes Calm, LLC. Ms. Skolnick guides and mentors parents of 2e children, 2e adults, trains educators and collaborates with clinicians on how to be reach and teach 2e students. Ms. Skolnick's training includes "How to Put the Person into Personalized Learning" through the 2e Center for Professional Development, as a parent group facilitator through SENG (Supporting the Emotional Needs of the Gifted). Ms. Skolnick's involvement in the field of 2e includes Nominated Secretary to the Maryland Advisory Council on Gifted and Talented, Maryland Liaison to SENG, Proposal Reviewer and Member of the Simultaneous Supports Committee for NAGC (National Association for Gifted Children), and as an Advisory Council Member to "The G Word" feature film currently in production. Ms. Skolnick's client experience, her writing and speaking about the topic, and her personal experience as the parent of three twice exceptional children also informs her success as a consultant to educators and clinicians. As producer of the global virtual conferences, 2 Days of 2e and Let's Talk 2e!, Ms. Skolnick is a world-wide influencer in the field of twice exceptionality. [School/Association] recognizes that Julie Skolnick's degrees do not include education or mental health. Julie's passion for the twice-exceptional population is profound and translates into her writing, teaching and speaking engagements.

Signed: _____
Julie F. Skolnick, M.A., J.D.

Signed: _____
School Representative

Date: _____

Date: _____